PC 1124 ANDREW PRATT F2 SUB-DIVISION

On Saturday 15 April 1989, at 9.00am I commenced duty at Ecclesfield Police Station and was then transported down to Hillsborough Football Ground where at 10.00am I attended a briefing for the Semi-Final Football Match between Liverpool and Nottingham Forest. My duties for that event were on serial 19 and the officer in charge of that serial was PS 323 Proctor. At about 11.00am after the briefing together with the rest of the serial I went to the Leppings Lane end of the ground. Our duties were outside the ground and were to supervise the arrival of the Liverpool supporters in and around the turnstile area. Upon our arrival I saw a number of Liverpool supporters outside the ground apparently waiting to get in. These supporters were well behaved. At about 12 noon the turnstiles at that end were opened and a trickle of supporters went inside. At this early stage there were a few supporters stopping others and asking if they had any spare tickets. These people were moved on.

Between about 1.00 and 2.00pm the arriving supporters greatly
